

Youth Week in Tokyo 2009

What?

- Experience a unique 10-day cultural exchange program!
- Discuss about our future at the 5th Japanese-German Youth Summit!
- Learn about other cultures and practice your language skills!
- Explore Tokyo, make friends and have fun!

- Gain intercultural competence!

- Get to know and meet with renowned representatives from institutions and corporations!
- Stay downtown at the Yoyogi National Olympic Memorial Youth Center (NYC), Tokyo.
- Click here to see the schedule! When and where?

- 12th to 21st August 2009
- Several places in and around Tokyo. See details here in the schedule.
- Stay: downtown at the Yoyogi National Olympic Memorial Youth Center (NYC), Tokyo; all participants will stay in NYC accommodation facilities to make the most of the cultural exchange and group experience. Participation
- Participants: About 200 Japanese, German and international students and young people, generally between 18 and 30 years of age.

- Fees: 45,000 Yen incl. 5,000 Yen admission fee to be transferred after admission.
Friendship Fee Option: 2 or more friends who apply together will get a fee discount per person (2 to 4 friends = 2,000 Yen discount per person, 5 to 9 friends = 3,000 Yen discount per person, 10 or more friends = 5,000 Yen discount per person) after admission.
Invite your Japanese, German and international friends!

Single Fee

Friendship Fees for groups (fee per person)

1 person 2-4 friends 5-9 friends

10 or more friends

45,000 Yen 43,000 Yen

42,000 Yen 40,000 Yen

- Fees do include group transportation in Tokyo, accommodation in single rooms for 10 nights (12th to 21st August) and meals at Yoyogi NYC, group entrance fees, program parties and insurance.
- Note: Japanese young people can choose to apply either for the Youth Week or for the Youth Summit, all other students and young people can only apply for the Youth Week.
- There can be no pro rata reduction for participants living in Tokyo. All participants will stay in NYC accommodation facilities to make the most of the cultural exchange and group experience. Fees do not include (international) travel/flight costs to Tokyo, Japan. Young people from Germany may book and get to Japan with a group flight organized by DJJG.

What else?

- Youth Week languages: Japanese, German and English.
- Note: Participants should have basic foreign language skills in at least one of the above languages as experience tells that all of the above languages will be used on occasion. Main Youth Week/Summit language will be English, followed by Japanese and German. This flagship event brings together program partner representatives and participants from across the world.

- Dress code: Casual; business casual for receptions and presentation to the public.

- Extension option possible. See Application form.

How to apply?

- Click here and apply in this Online Application form until 10th July
- News 09.07.2009: Applications to be put on waitlist.

Space for participation is on a first come, first serve basis!
It is always to your benefit to apply before the posted deadline.
Questions?

Just email in English to application@djjg.org ! Support and (recent) program partners
German Embassy Tokyo / Embassy of Japan in Berlin
The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan (MOFA)

The Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology of Japan (MEXT) Federal Ministry of Education and Research, Germany (BMBF) Japanese-German Center Berlin (JDZB)
The Japan Foundation
Robert Bosch Stiftung
Goethe Institute
German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) National Olympic Memorial Youth Center (NYC)
Daimler AG, Google Inc., TEPCO and other corporations plus DIHKJAIESEC United Nations University - Institute of Advanced Studies (UNU-IAS)
Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO)
Japanese-German Society Tochigi, Japanese-German Society Tokyo and others Association of German-Japanese Societies (VDJG) Patronage: Prof. Dr. Annette Schavan, Federal Minister of Education and Research (BMBF) The Youth Week in Tokyo and Youth Summit are parts of the program "Hallo Japan"
Hallo Japan / Hallo Deutschland were awarded as UNESCO ESD World Decade projects 2008/2009 Links About us - Video on YouTube
UNESCO ESD (Education for Sustainable Development)
1st Japanese-German Youth Summit 2005 in Tokyo
4th German-Japanese Youth Summit 2008 in Berlin